Recognition honors her work in Community Association Law and Real Estate Law

Cynthia A. Jones
Attorney

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Sellers, Ayers, Dortch & Lyons, P.A. is pleased to announce that attorney Cynthia A. Jones has been recognized in the 2027 edition of The Best Lawyers in America® for her work in Community Association Law and Real Estate Law.

The recognition adds to Jones's established record in these practice areas. Her firm biography lists previous Best Lawyers recognition in Community Association Law and Real Estate Law in 2024 and 2025.

Best Lawyers states that recognition is determined through a peer-review process rather than paid placement or self-nomination, and that no fee is required to be considered or recognized.

> "Being recognized by fellow attorneys makes this distinction especially meaningful," said Jones. "I am grateful for the confidence of my peers and for the opportunity to continue serving community associations, developers and other clients throughout the Carolinas."

Jones is licensed in both North Carolina and South Carolina and concentrates her practice on representing community associations and real estate developers. Her practice includes the development, creation and organization of condominium and homeowners associations; interpretation, enforcement and amendment of governing documents; and collection of unpaid assessments, including matters involving liens, foreclosures and bankruptcies.

Her involvement in community association law extends beyond her legal practice. Jones currently serves on the Community Associations Institute National Board of Trustees and previously served as president of CAI's North Carolina Chapter. She is also a member of the College of Community Association Lawyers (CCAL) and serves on the South Carolina Bar Community Association Law Committee.

CCAL was established to recognize excellence in the practice of community association law. According to the firm's biography of Jones, fewer than 175 of the thousands of attorneys practicing community association law in the United States have been offered membership in the College.
